- I liked the whole setting of the house, and
- how much space i felt i had here. Everything
- about this house is pretty. I liked that
- we were allowed to look around the house
- to get use to it. I liked working with other
- people i never got to talk to before and
- how we did the work together. My favorite
- part of what we learned is how we all
- got to get to know ourselves, I feel like
- i got to learn how I can be more
- confident in myself. I would recommend
- this to others so you can get to know
- yourself and just feel free in this space
- and the people here were so welcoming.

Throughout this trip I liked the house because it sits in front of a beautiful veiw both day and night My favorite spot to chill at was In the living room because you could see everthing like people excersizing, and buildings, and all the cars. I liked the learning because all of us got a chance to come and experience a beautiful life like the house and learn more about ourselves not only that but somewhat eachother. ~~I liked everything I learned because I learned It taught me how to~~ My favorite part of this learning experience was how I could find my voice n use skills to share my voice. I wovd definitly reccomend this to others for a chance to develop new learning and leadership skills And Its fun and not Boring

i liked the Bathrooms in the setting Because i was able to Dream that i can have Four Bathrooms as well as a Fish tank like shower in the Basement. The thing i liked in the Learning would be how fun and awesome you made the Activites on role playing letting us the Students have as much Fun as we can with that. Defenchive role Playing and acting Because i got to show off my Oscar award winning performance Yes this is Defenchive Something i would recommend for others Because this is a Place where you can share your passion, talents, and voice with others and not get Judged for it.

1. What did you like about the setting? Why?
I really like the house. it's very beautiful. it feels very cozys. all the rooms are amazing. it just a great place to be in. Never in my life i would think to be in a house like this
2. What did you like about the learning? Why?
i liked the way (yuvon) taught and i learned alot about myself and others. the activitys were really fun. i'm really looking forward to coming back
3. What was your favorite part of the learning? Why?
My favorite part was the activites and role playing it made me and others step out of our comfort zone and try new thins. It made me feel alot more confident
4. Would you recommed this to others? Why?
Yes i would recommed this. it's a great learning opportunity and very enjoyable i feel alot of people would like it here. I'm very greatful i had this chance to come and learn in a place like this.

i liked when everyone had to talk to each other. it made me more comfortable when talking to others

my favorite part is when we had to be into groups & when that happened it made me less jammed out when talking would i recommend this to anyone?

yes i would because this would help people talk more instead of being shy. and not saying anything

what did i like about the setting?
the house was amazing i liked coming here the last few days. [redacted]

4. The setting is very beautiful, unique and adjustable because, the environment is welcoming. I absolutely loved learning about every topic that was stated in this work shop, which taught me ~~[illegible]~~ things that I ~~have~~ never knew about myself, and that ~~satisfied~~ inspired me to push myself to become a better individual. My favorite part about this workshop was experiencing new opportunities that will most definitly help me in the future. There was one that sticked out to me, which was the ability to work together and create new relationships with other individuals.

I would recomend this workshop to others because it is a positive way to push yourself to do better ~~[illegible]~~ for the ~~[illegible]~~ environment around you.

During this conference, I enjoyed the environment I was working in because it felt safe and welcoming. I liked that there was many interesting and beautiful scenery around the house, it definitley made my learning experience interesting and more benefitting. [redacted] About the learning, I liked how I was able to get a more clear understanding about myself and my future, I enjoyed working with the people who were there and developing trust to share about eachothers thoughts. My favourite part of this conference was learning about myself and getting to know all the people around me. [redacted] I highly reccomed this conference to people my age because it helped me with my future life and to be more confident with myself or others.

What did you like about the setting?
The setting was at this beautiful house in Saskatoon, the house gave off warmth, insperation,
What did you like about the learning? and why?
I liked learning about myself and others hopes and dream. This whole experance was so sencal.
What was your favorite part of what you learned?
I liked that we didn't usually talked to, and listen to someone talk.
Would you recomend this to others? why?
because it could be life changing for the person and help them learn about themselves a little more.

Throughout this conference I learned different aspects that could bring me to big things in my future. By attending this conference I was able to learn more about myself, responsibilities, and skills. From learning these things I was able to look more into my career, which changed how I think about my life after highschool. I think that coming to this, impacted my future by identifying skills that I didn't know of myself

Overall:

- My thoughts are bigger and better and I see and view things like my career, future, and health differently.
- My feelings have changed by having a

- Throughout this [redacted] conference my thoughts about my Career choices has been a big focus because before this conference Ive been struggling with what Im interested in, Ive figured out [redacted] a few [redacted] career paths. My feelings about this confrence at first I was excited but really nervous mainly because [redacted] it was a new experience and Im not really used to trying new things but now Im feeling proud of myself for finishing what I started. [redacted] Instead of dropping this class. [redacted]

- I think that i have changed the way i talk on the projects that how i am able to get into the things we are doing. As well as before. this i didn't know i was doing my apologizes are wrong By me not taking account and using some other reason then myself when saying sorry. i also didn't know how to play pool even though i never won while playing with everyone i thought that whole thing was an Experience to truly remember. i got really into pool to the point where i was pouting like some sad baby when boys. i heckle A whole lot to the point where i annoy the other players with is truly a gift and curse. well the way

So my Thoughts have changed by
- Be more mindful of how i say things
- and how could be competitive and heckle a whole lot feelings
- By me feeling good about how i look at these teachings
Because this was a good opportunity for me actions
- how im alright at pool but never won words
- by being kinder and giving the sincerest apologies i can give when i do something wrong.

Find my voice

over this past week, thought to better myself, be proactive and not be lazy a couple weeks ago i was lazy, wouldnt wanna do anything except lay in bed all day. i wouldnt do school work when im supposed to, but coming over here made ~~realized~~ graduating is more important than staying home.

- I learned how to prepare before going into a interview, and thats going to help me a lot leaving here and going forward.
- I was stressed out when we first started because it seemed hard and alot to do in 3 days, but when we started it was easy and fun to do the work.
- I'm excited to leave this place with all the new things I learned and use them going on from from now.

-I learned how to ~~say sorry~~ and how it tell if its a fake one =conversation starters
- interview

By the end of this work shop I accomplished to find my voice, share my voice, and sustained my voice. I found my voice by my talents, passions, my conscience, and a need in the world.
I shared my voice by greeting others properly, conversation starters, body language, expressing gratitude, resolving conflicts, and offering apologies.
I sustained my voice learning continuous innovation and resilience.
I am so greatful to be able to experience something so beneficial towards my future. I will continue to use my voice, to share my voice, and sustain my voice.
